REASONS
WHY YOU SHOULD PREFER TO INSURE
WITH THE OLD
INSURANCE CO. OF NORTH AMERICA.
PHILADELPHIA.

1. It is the Oldest Insurance Company in America,—having commenced business in 1794—and therefore entitled to your confidence on the score of Stability.

2. It has done a successful business for eighty years, thereby demonstrating the ability of its management.

3. It has uniformly maintained during its long career, the Highest Reputation for Integrity and Honorable Dealing, justifying thereby, full faith that your rights will receive fair and liberal protection.

4. It has paid Losses in cash, exceeding Thirty Million Dollars, without the deduction of a cent, or a day's delay—a sufficient evidence of the Wealth of its Resources, as well as disposition to meet promptly all liabilities.

5. It has a Cash Capital and Surplus of over $4,700,000, securely invested—an ample GUARANTEE AGAINST DISASTER, in the event of unusual and extraordinary losses, which have often swept away companies of limited means.

6. It insures all the better classes of property on Liberal Terms, for long or short periods, and settles all honest claims for losses, Promptly and Equitably, at the Agency where the Insurance is effected—observing in all its business relations, the Golden Rule.

Mystery Solved.
The Great Secret of the Wonderful
SUCCESS OF VEGETINE.
It strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous system.

Reliable Evidence.
MR. H. R. STEVENS:—
DEAR SIR—I will most cheerfully add my testimony to the great number you have already received in favor of your great and good medicine, VEGETINE, for I do not think enough can be said in its praise, for I was troubled over thirty years with that dreadful disease, Catarrh, and had such bad coughing spells that it would seem as though I could never breathe any more, and VEGETINE has cured me; and I do feel to thank God all the time there is so good a medicine as VEGETINE, and I also think it one of the best medicines for coughs and weak sinking feelings at the stomach, and advise everybody to take the VEGETINE, for I can assure them that it is one of the best medicines that ever was.
MRS. L. GODE,
Cor. Magazine and Walnut Sts.,
Cambridge, Mass.

THOUSANDS SPEAK.
VEGETINE is acknowledged and recommended by physicians and apothecaries to be the best purifier and cleanser of the blood yet discovered, and thousands speak in its praise who have been restored to health.

Report from a Practical Chemist & Apothecary.
BOSTON, Jan. 1, 1874.
DEAR SIR—This is to certify that I have sold at retail 1545 dozen (1852 bottles) of your VEGETINE since April 17, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy for the complaints for which it is recommended that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am perfectly cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity. Very respectfully yours,
AT GILMAN,
468 Broadway.
To H. R. STEVENS, Esq.

VEGETINE
Will Cleanse Scrofula from the System.
Honest Opinion.
MR. H. R. STEVENS:—
DEAR SIR—This is to show that my son was taken sick in January, 1864, with Scrofula, which came out in large sores and ulcers on his leg and hip. His leg was swelled more than twice its natural size. He had several doctors of high standing in their profession—two from Boston and three from Charlestown—without getting a bit better. He was obliged to lie wherever he was placed, for he had no use of his limbs whatever. When we had given up all hopes of his living we were told to try VEGETINE, the great blood remedy; and he had taken it but a short time before we could see a great change. The sores run so bad that we had to change the cloths four or five times a day. Still, he was getting better; for he could move his limbs and help himself a little. He was soon able to sit up in bed, and, by constant use of VEGETINE, it has cured him. He has a lame leg, which he will probably have for life; but we all honestly believe, if we had used VEGETINE before we had bothered with those doctors, it would have saved the use of his leg, and restored it to natural health. I hope all those troubled with Scrofula will read this testimony of me and my son, who is now well and able to speak for himself.
CATHERINE MAHONEY,
DANIEL MAHONEY,
19 Trenton St., Charlestown, Mass.
May 10, 1872.
The above plain but honest statement conclusively shows the quick and thorough cleansing effects of the VEGETINE in Scrofula.

VEGETINE is acknowledged by all classes of people to be the best and most reliable blood purifier in the world. dec21-4w

PERIODICALS.

The Galaxy.

The Galaxy commences its tenth year with a most attractive January number. "Dear Lady Disdain," the latest and best novel of Justin McCarthy, is brought to a close; and after taking our leave of Christmas and Marie, as they sail toward the Golden Gate, we turn to be introduced to "Madcap Violet," in a new story by William Black, the brilliant new novelist, whose "Princess of Thule" and "Strange Adventures of a Phaeton" are now read in every language.

One of the most noticeable articles in the magazine, and one which will claim the instant attention of all young men and old bachelors of a philosophical turn, is entitled "Woman's Occupations," by Albert Rhodes. Mr. Rhodes is the earnest advocate of woman in her efforts to arrive at an independent position, but is careful not to identify himself with the agitators who have taken unto themselves the mission of clamoring for the rights of woman and thrusting her forward into impudic publicity. He is desirous that new ways may be opened up to her, some of which he suggests, but is opposed to public vocations, which, in his opinion, tend to rob her of womanly characteristics. The article contains some good advice to women who want to make a living, as well as some wholesome satire on those whose hearts ache concerning the respectability of their calling.

Another prominent article is Justin McCarthy's sketch of the royal family of England. Mr. McCarthy is English, and evidently loves his country and its government, but he has travelled sufficiently in other lands to overcome the insular prejudice, and takes the broad views of a citizen of the world rather than of a dweller in the middle of London.

Richard B. Kimball contributes an article upon "Bankers," their tricks and manners, showing the origin and development of a sort of industry which is not generally understood and appreciated by the confiding public, who are occasionally instructed at great cost to themselves.

Charles W. Raymond, U. S. army, contributes a readable article upon the survey of the American territory in the West, and gives many interesting facts connected with the service which have never before been published. There is a sketch of Walter Savage Landor, the eccentric poet, by Dr. Guernsey; followed by a translation or adaptation from the advance sheets of a remarkable book by H. Taine, soon to be published in Paris. Another article without signature is a graphic picture of the Japanese theatre, both exterior and interior, as seen last year at Yeddo. The sketch, which is written in a sprightly, humorous tone, and evidently by a man of the world who has visited theatres before, goes so far as to include some dashes of dramatic criticism which are certainly a novelty. We are treated also to a glimpse of the plots of some of the most popular Japanese plays, one of which bears a striking analogy to the "Camille" of Dumas and the well-known Italian opera "La Traviata." There are poems by Hjalmar Hjorth Boyesen and Miss Kate Hillard. The usual departments of Science and Literature follow, and complete a very attractive number.

With the January number "The Galaxy" enters on its twenty first volume. The marked success which it has attained in its eleven years of existence proves pretty clearly that a high toned literary magazine will be generously supported. For the year 1876 it expects to make a great advance. At no time during its existence has "The Galaxy" been surrounded with so strong a staff of elegant and brilliant writers. Every department will be maintained at even a higher standard than heretofore. Miss Annie T. Howells, sister of W. D. Howells, the delightful essayist and novelist, has just commenced a serial story in "The Galaxy." Miss Howells has written several short stories full of promise, and giving evidence of a delightful fancy and graceful style. This is her first novel, and will justify the high expectations which are entertained of it. Henry James, Jr., Albert Rhodes, Richard Grant White, and Prof. H. H. Boyesen will contribute to "The Galaxy." Gen. Geo. A. Custer, the brilliant cavalry officer, will also contribute a series of sketches, giving some of his most exciting and interesting adventures in army life. Gen. Custer handles his pen as well as his sword, and is sure to furnish a most charming series of papers.

Harper's Magazine.

Harper's Magazine for January contains sixty-six illustrations and a rich variety of reading matter. The number begins and ends with Florida. The opening article, "The Oklawaha," by Constance F. Woolson, profusely illustrated, describes the scenery, tropical fruits and flowers, and the historical associations of the most wonderful river-valley in Florida: and the concluding poem of the number, "Florida Pioneers," is a pleasant rendering in verse of the history of recent progress in Orange county in that state.

The illustrated descriptive articles on New England, of late so prominent a feature in Harper's, are continued, this number containing an interesting description of a university town—"Cambridge on the Charles"—with twenty-six engravings, comprising illustrations of the college buildings and old historic houses, and portraits of Harvard's most eminent presidents, and of the distinguished literary men of Cambridge.

The number has a Christmas flavor especially in the capital illustrated paper on belfry music, entitled "The Poetry of Steeples." "A Quaker's Christmas-eve" is a beautiful poem, contributed by Fannie R. Robinson. The Editor's Easy Chair opens with a delightful chat about the influence of Dickens, Thackeray, and Irving on our Christmas festival.

Among the lighter and more attractive articles of the number must be reckoned the Hon. S. S. Cox's concluding paper on "Legislative Humors," which is rich in anecdote and personal allusion.

President Barnard, in the "First Century" series, concludes his able and suggestive review of the contributions made to the exact sciences by Americans, and is followed by Professor Theo. Gill, who reviews American progress in natural science.

John J. Stevens, who is to England what Viollet-le-Duc is to France, contributes an exceedingly instructive and lucid paper on Gothic Architecture, with explanatory illustrations.

There are three unusually strong short stories in this number, contributed by the Rev. William M. Baker, Mrs. Frank McCarthy, and G. W. Cable. Julian Hawthorne's serial story, "Garth," still continued, has no equal in recent American fiction. The number contains poems, in addition to those already mentioned, by the Rev. Horatio N. Powers, Carl Spencer, Hannah R. Hudson, and John J. Piatt.

The Messrs. Harper announce the commencement, in the February number, of a new novel by George Eliot, of the same scope as "Middlemarch," portraying English social life of the present day.

The Folio.

The January number of this brightest and best of the musical magazines comes to hand fresh as ever, and filled with matter which promises much for the coming year. The literary department contains an interesting article on the origin of the "Liberty Pole," by John W. Moore, and the first of a series of unusually instructive articles on the "Education of Pianists," by James M. Tracy. The editorial and "miscellany" columns are filled with just that newsy, chatty kind of information which everyone likes to read. The musical department contains six pieces of music as follows: "Angel Hands shall ever Guide Thee," song and chorus, by G. C. Wheeler; "After Winter cometh Summer," by W. C. Wright, "Wilson's Funeral March," by T. P. Ryder; "Prince Imperial Galop," a duet, by W. H. Ganz; "Clover Leaf Waltz," by Geo. Thorne, and "All the Earth is Glad Again," a new Christmas anthem, by C. A. White, whose melodies are becoming the delight of the whole nation. This is an unusually rich musical feast, and yet is no greater than is offered every month in the year. The lady patrons will be pleased to find a fashion department added. The embellishment is an excellent lithograph portrait of Verdi, the eminent composer. Published by White, Smith & Co., Boston, Mass, at 15 cents per number, or $1.50 per year, post-paid.

NEWS ITEMS.

It is said that two-thirds of the school teachers in New York city are Irish Catholics.

The libel suit of Edna Dean Proctor against the Daily Graphic has been discontinued by negotiation.

The New York aldermen have voted that laborers' wages should be increased to two dollars per day, and that the salaries of the higher office holders should be reduced.

There are 800 paper mills in the United States, with a capital of $40,000,000, and producing $70,000,000 worth per annum.

When a French army officer is convicted of felony his epaulettes are torn off, his sword is broken, and a private steps from the ranks and kicks him. After that the civil authorities take care of him.

Under the license law of Minnesota there has already been collected from the liquor dealers of the state $18,000 in fees, which, under the provisions of the same law, will be used for the building and support of a state asylum for inebriates.

An English life insurance company has kept a record of the difference of mortality between teetotalers and moderate drinkers, and ascertained that the mortality of the former class was 20½ per cent. less than among the latter.

A. W. Chapin of Monson, Me., has sold a quarry on the Monson vein of slate, at Monson, to W. J. Sutherland of Boston for $50,000. Work will be commenced immediately.

Mr. Ruskin pitches into the young lady Sunday school teachers. "At present," he says, "you keep the dancing to yourselves and graciously teach your scholars the catechism. Suppose you were to try for a little while learning the catechism yourselves and teaching them to dance."

A circular, signed with the names of Matilda Joslyn Gage, Lilly Devereux Blake and Clemence S. Lozier, M. D., is being circulated in New York appealing for the passage of a "simple bill" by the legislature securing to the women of that state the right to vote for Presidential electors in the Fall of 1876.

It is said that about 15,000 bunches of violets are sold every day in Paris. Their sale amounts to 500,000 francs a year. They are not in so much favor now as they were during the empire, for the violet is looked upon as an imperial flower. It is, however, a political flower, and some people fear to be thought imperialists if they wear a violet in their button-hole.

Appleton's Encyclopedia has now reached its fourteenth volume, and the two remaining volumes are in press. Each volume stands the publishers in $30,000 before a copy is sold. Thus the outlay on the complete work is close on half a million dollars. The expenditure for wood engraving alone is about $80,000.

A German iron-clad fleet will visit American ports next year. It had been determined by the German authorities, even previous to the appearance last June of the Franklin and the Alaska in German waters, to return the visit of the Miantonomah and the Augusta, which took place in 1866. The crown prince may accompany the fleet.

Vesuvius, after a long period of rest, gives signs of an approaching eruption. The large crater which has been formed since the last disturbance emits a black smoke, always a symptom of volcanic activity, although the time which may elapse between the first symptom and the actual eruption is not definitely known. In December, 1854, similar appearances indicated approaching activity, which did not set in, however, until May, 1855.

The revenue officers have discovered an underground distillery for the manufacture of crooked whiskey, near Pueblo, Colorado. The two principal owners, C. C. Pinckney and John T. Hall, escaped, but are concealed in the neighborhood, and must be captured soon. William M. Bustard, upon whose land the distillery was located, has been admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000.

A gigantic new bridge is about to be built across the St. Lawrence at Montreal, to accommodate street cars, carriages and foot passengers as well as railroad traffic. A viaduct 1800 feet long, in twenty spans, will conduct from Sherbrooke street to the river; five spans of 600 feet each will cross the river at St. Helen's Island, which will be traversed by a viaduct with twenty spans of 120 feet each, while twelve spans will cross the unnavigable channel south of the island. The bridge will be 130 feet over the level of the river.

A correspondent sends the following simple remedy for diphtheria and sore throat which he tested with great success:

Take some pitch bar—not gas bar—and spread a very little on an iron that is just hot enough to make smoke—a common flat-iron will do. Invert a tunnel over the smoke and inhale for a few minutes, holding the small end of the tunnel to the mouth and swallowing as much smoke as can be borne without strangling. Try this five or six times a day. During the intervals of inhaling the smoke, small pieces of ice should be held in the mouth as far back in the throat as possible. It would be well to give this easy method a trial in severe cases of malignant scarlet fever, where there is much distress in the throat.

The Hon. Mrs. Norton, whose approaching marriage to Sir W. Stirling Maxwell is announced in the London Athenæum, is rather advanced in years for a bride. She is now sixty-seven years old. Her grandfather was the celebrated dramatist, orator and statesman, Richard Brinsley Sheridan. Her first marriage, to Hon. George Chapple Norton, took place very nearly half a century ago, in 1827. She was a precocious rhymster, and a volume of her juvenile poems was published in 1820, when George IV. had just begun to reign, and James Munroe was President of the United States. Her most widely-known poem, "Bingen on the Rhine," was the school-boy declamation of men now past middle age. Miss Sedgwick, in her "Letters from Abroad," published in 1841, described Mrs. Norton as the perfection of intellectual and physical beauty, uniting masculine force with feminine delicacy.

THE DAY.

Vesuvius is again in eruption, the lava flowing freely.

It is now correctly ascertained that the number of persons killed by the Bremerhaven explosion will amount to 123, and 56 wounded.

Bush & Grout's boot shop and five other buildings in Spencer, Mass., were burned on Monday night. The loss will amount to between $75,00 and $100,000. Partial insurance.

Judge Dickey received a large majority of the votes cast in Chicago and outside towns, yesterday, for judge of the state supreme court. His majority over Hurd in the city was about 4000.

Two hundred and fifty five years ago today the pilgrim fathers land at Plymouth, in commemoration of which fact the President dined today with the New England society of New York.

The Bremen aid committee reports that twenty of the victims of the dynamite explosion are hopelessly maimed, and there are fifty six widows and one hundred and thirty five orphans of the victims of the disaster, for the benefit of whom it proposes to raise a subscription of $75,000.

The Transatlantic Company's steamer Lovisiane, homeward bound from the West Indies, was sunk in the Gironde river, France, on Monday night, with the loss of sixteen persons, including her captain. One hundred passengers were rescued by steamer Gironde, with which the lost steamer came in collision.

The committee to examine the affairs of the Providence Tool Company was engaged in that work yesterday, and adjourned until 10:30 o'clock today. It is understood that the company showed about $1,400,000 of assets in excess of liabilities. The president of the company yesterday received a communication from nearly all the 1800 employes, expressing sympathy and good will for the company, and voluntarily proposing to relinquish all claim to wages due for December, amounting in the aggregate to about $90,000.

BOUNTIES.

Senator Boutwell's bill in the United States Senate to pay large government subsidies to the shipping interest is one of the most unwise and dangerous propositions that ever came before Congress. It opens the flood gates to all manner of extravagance and corruption. If the ship owners are to have large donations out of the public treasury, so also should railroad men, telegraph lines, and every other conceivable business whose prosperity tends to the national wealth. The province of government was never more prostituted than when it undertakes to legislate for class interests, or to take an oversight of the business affairs of individuals. Senator Boutwell should be made to feel that he has mistaken his calling if he supposes it is his business as a member of Congress to give away the peoples' money in subsidies, land grants or anything of the kind. He has helped by an outrageous tariff to make ship building so expensive that we cannot compete with other nations on the seas, and having thus wronged the shipping interest in one direction now proposes to make up for the injury by freely giving its representatives an abundance of the public money. The Republican party should understand that if it engages in this business its days are numbered. The people pay high taxes and submit to enormous burdens because they feel it to be a necessity, but when these burdens are increased through the voting of subsidies to railroads and steamships they will refuse to submit. Wo to the public men or to the party that engages in this species of public robbery. Such are not entitled to the respect and confidence of the people, no, not for an hour.

PERIODICALS.

Littell's Living Age.

Littell's Living Age is a magazine that few people of culture will willingly go without. Not many have the means to take the leading European periodicals, nor the time to read them could they take them. The Living Age presents each week admirable selections from the best English and French magazines, republishing the best novels, theological, scientific, critical and biographical essays. The last number contains the Revesby Memoirs, from the Edinburgh Review; The Curate in Charge, by Mrs. Oliphant, part V, from MacMillan's Magazine; A Wanderer's Letter, from Blackwood's Magazine; The Dilemma, part XV, from the same; Virgil and Tennyson, from MacMillan's; The Autobiography of Anne Halkett, from The Academy; Recent History of the Pitcairn Islanders, from Chamber's Journal; Mr. Ruskin on Women and War, from The Peace Society's Papers; The Mock Pearls of History from Russell's Library Notes. The poetry of the number consists of Twilight, by William Ernest Henley; A Song for Galatea by J. R. S., and an Unspoken Question, from Blackwood's Magazine. The Living Age, weekly, is published by Littell & Gay, 17 Bromfield street, Boston, at $8 a year.

Eclectic.

As this is the time when readers are making up their minds what periodicals to subscribe for during the coming year, a few words as to the special merits of the Eclectic will, perhaps, prove useful. The Eclectic is pre-eminently the magazine for a cultivated family, where improvement is recognized as one of the objects of reading, and the subscriber may go to its pages with the certainty that he will be confronted with nothing of a trivial character, or of merely transient interest, and that he will find something adapted to the tastes of every member of the family circle. Its scientific papers, literary and social essays, criticisms, reviews, and summaries of discussion, render it well-nigh indispensable to whosoever would keep up with the intellectual activity of the time; while its serial and short stories, tales, biographical sketches, poems, and narratives of adventure and discovery render it attractive to those who seek amusement as well as profit in the pages of their monthly visitor. In fact, the Eclectic may be said to provide exactly that desideratum of so many households—a magazine which is instructive without being dull, and entertaining without being trivial.

The January number, beginning a new volume and a new year, is a good specimen of the magazine, and offers a favorable opportunity for new subscribers to begin. It is embellished with two fine steel engravings, "The Flower-Gatherers" and "George Washington and his Family," The first is a child piece, very beautiful in design, very tender in sentiment, and admirably engraved. The second is peculiarly appropriate to the centennial year, comprising portraits of Washington in his uniform, as general of the army, of Martha Washington, of Wm. Lee, and of the children, Geo. Washington Parke Custis and Eleanor Parke Custis. We may add, that each monthly number of the Eclectic contains at least one steel engraving, usually a portrait of some man distinguished in letters, art or politics.

Of the literary attractions of the January number, the most striking are: A synopsis of the curiously fascinating Memoirs of Saint-Simon; an article by Prof. Tyndall on Materialism and its Opponents; an excellent paper by Col. Chesney on Sherman and Johnston; Galton's suggestive paper on The History of Twins; an admirable biographical article on Two Danes, Thorwaldsen and Andersen; an entertaining treatise on Automatic Chess and Card playing; another description of The Dutch and their Dead Cities; a collection of O'Connelliana; a brief paper on the natural history of the Arctic Regions; and another giving the Recent History of the Pitcairn Islanders. Besides these, there is some good poetry; stories by Mrs. Alexander, author of The Wooing O't, and Miss C. C. Fraser-Tytler; and the usual well-filled editorial departments. Surely it is an exacting taste that will not find something here to satisfy it.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS.

At Christmas, says the Garden, decorations of some kind are as a rule, attempted in every house; indeed, one could hardly believe it was Christmas in the absence of holly, ivy and mistletoe, which have so long at this season occupied prominent places in our households. The custom of decorating with evergreens is far from being a modern one. The Romans, 2000 years ago, did the same thing: indeed it is more than probable that the origin of adorning our homes with ivy, holly and bay must be sought for in the Roman Saturnalia, held every year towards the end of December. Formerly the decorations of rooms consisted of a few branches of evergreens stuck here and there as might be convenient, but now they are of a much more complicated character, and require time and skill in their manufacture. Where decorations of any extent are annually employed, the week before Christmas is a busy time with the ladies of the household, as the making of the decorations principally falls to their share. To make effective and pretty designs requires good taste, practice, skill and a general knowledge of the materials to be employed. A few hints on this subject, therefore, may prove acceptable, as I have assisted in making many decorations at Christmas time, and so can speak from experience. First come under our notice the shrubs to be selected. Though holly, ivy and mistletoe are principally used, there are many other materials which may be enumerated, and which are admirably adapted to intersperse with the above, so as to relieve that sameness which would occur were holly and other ordinary Christmas evergreens only employed. Among others I may mention the following: Arbutus, aucuba, bay, euonymus, gold and silver hollies, ivies of different colors, laurustinus, Portugal laurel, spruce and silver firs, yew, &c.; also branchlets of arbor-vitæ, cypress, deodar, juniper, thuja, or any other ornamental shrubs obtainable. Having said so much for evergreens, let us advert to the foundations on which they are to be worked. These consist of the following, for, according to the style of decoration, so the foundation must be selected. For garlands, wire or strong cord should be used: the latter is, however preferable, as it is not so liable to twist as wire; and, for what are called upright wreaths or panels fine iron rods are the best. For ornamental devices perforated zinc should be used; for letters, strong brown paper; for narrow beadings, where single leaves only are employed, tape wire; for crosses, picture frames, texts, &c., flat laths; such as are used in the construction of ceilings by plasterers, or hazel rods; and for wreaths, strong wire; for small garlands, fine twine is serviceable. In addition to the above, several balls of hemp twine (fine and coarse), large needles and strong linen thread (dark green or black), a pair of scissors, penknife, and reels of binding wire must also be at hand; and though last on the list, one of the most important things to be supplied with is a strong pair of kid gloves to protect the hands from the scratches and cuts which they are certain to receive if unprotected from the prickly leaves of holly or from the binding wire. Although I recommend strong kid gloves, I do not mean them to be thick or in any way clumsy, as, if that were the case, it would be impossible to do any of the fine work, such as letters in single leaves, neatly.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—There was a heavy rain last night.

—At one o'clock today Dr. White was no better.

—Miss Mary A. Wilbour is regarded as considerably better.

—A large fleet of vessels went out of the harbor this morning.

—Don't fail to attend the Portsmouth quartette club concert this evening in the Union Congregational church.

—The English brig Anna Mitchell which left here on Monday for Boston went ashore on Cuttyhunk that night and is a total loss.

—Frederick N. Cottrell, treasurer of the Jamestown and Newport Ferry Company, has presented each of the company's employes with a turkey for Christmas.

—Carl killed a black bear yesterday and proposes to sell him in steaks to his customers. He bought him at Stanhope's auction last Summer and has been fattening him since.

—The schooner Nicanor, Capt. Grey, owned by G. C. & W. J. Monroe of this city, bound for this port from Boston in ballast, went ashore on Monday near Seaconnet point and filled with water. The captain arrived here yesterday afternoon and arranged with John Waters & Co. to go to the schooner's assistance. She is partially insured and will probably be saved.

—Dr. Taylor has in his drug store eight china jars with blue decorations that were used by his predecessors in the same store in the year 1746. He has an elegant cut glass jar equally ancient, a bell metal skillet and a copper still of great antiquity, and a "bezoar stone," a sort of charm or amulet that our great grandparents put considerable faith in, and which was sold in the apothecary shops of olden times.

—An adjourned temperance meeting was held last evening. About thirty persons were present, and they manifested much interest in the object of the meeting. Remarks were made by Messrs. Nichols, Smith, Swan, Howland, Munford and Hildreth. The secretary read the rules and regulations of the People's Temperance Union of Rhode Island which it is proposed to organize at once. They were voted upon in sections and unanimously adopted.

THE NECKTIE FESTIVAL.—The successful necktie fair and festival of the ladies of the Thames-street Methodist Episcopal church was concluded last evening. The doctor's cake was voted to Dr. N. G. Stanton. Over the doll there was a good deal of rivalry, about $40 being spent in ballots for it. It was voted to Miss Mary Lewis. Late in the evening William H. Crandall disposed of nearly all the unsold articles at auction. The proceeds of the entertainment will amount to a handsome figure. The society acknowledge their indebtedness to Carl Hertgen, John Romsden, Philip Rider, the Redwood band and others.

DEATH OF HENRY O. HOWARD.—Henry O. Howard of San Francisco, a brother-in-law of Rev. E. H. Kettell, rector of Zion church, died last night at the house of Nathan H. Gould, Esq., after a long and painful illness. He was born in Boston in 1835 and graduated at the English high school of that city. After leaving school he made several voyages around the world. Twenty years ago he went to San Francisco and went into business with his uncle, George H. Howard & Co., one of the largest firms in the city. Four years ago, on account of his health, he went to Hayti, thence to Liverpool, and afterwards again around the world. He arrived here from Liverpool last August to visit his sister and brother-in-law before returning to San Francisco. His death was rather unexpected. He leaves no family, Mrs. Kettell and an unmarried sister being his nearest relatives. The funeral will be at Zion church tomorrow at one o'clock, and the Rev. Dr. Mercer and Rev. Messrs. Peet and Stewart will officiate. The remains will be taken to Boston. The Odd Fellows will meet this evening to take action upon Mr. Howard's death, as he was a member of Apollo Lodge of San Francisco. The flag over the Odd Fellows' hall is at half mast on his account.

A GUANTLET THROWN.

To the Editor of the Daily News:—

Will some of your Christian readers who favor the exemption of churches from taxation explain how they reconcile with the teachings of Jesus the compelling of unwilling non-church-going tax payers to bear the burdens which should fall on the church-goers? CIVIS.

MIDDLETOWN.

COURT OF PROBATE.—Monday, Dec. 20. All the members present.

Administrator's second account with the estate of John H. Spooner allowed and ordered recorded.

Guardian's first account with the estates of Susanna E. and Robert T. S. Allen and the administrator's second and final account with the estate of Robert B. Caswell were received and referred with an order of notice.

IN TOWN COUNCIL.—A decree was made adjudging necessary the road petitioned to be laid out from the west main road to Southwick's grove, and thence in a southeasterly direction to the east main road, and Daniel Chase, Jethro Peckham and Robinson P. Barker appointed a committee to lay out the same.

The petition of Philip Caswell and others, for a contribution from the town to aid in building a road from Bliss road across Easton's pond to Easton's beach was ordered to lie on the table.

Accounts to the amount of $189.18 were allowed and ordered to be paid from the town treasury.

STATE MISCELLANY.

Merrick Nichols, the oldest undertaker in Providence, died in a chair Sunday evening.

Samuel Wright, a colored man, aged 40 years, fell in a fit Saturday, on the Neptune wharf, Providence, and died in a few minutes. His body was conveyed to the Central police station. He had lived in Providence for some time, but very little is known of him.

The Rhode Island Poultry and Columbarian Society will hold an exhibition in Howard Hall, Providence, from February 7th to the 12th inclusive.

Sunday was the 200th anniversary of the Great Swamp fight, which took place in Kingston, between the troops of the united New England colonies on the one side and the Indian warriors on the other, in which engagement the power of the Narragansetts was effectually broken and the ultimate supremacy of the white men virtually established.

FATHER GRACE'S STATEMENT.

NEWPORT, Dec. 21.

To the Editor of the Providence Journal:—

Permit me to explain, in the columns of the Journal, the precise truth regarding the burial of the child, Geneva Du Fray, in whose early death I am accused of priestly intolerance, in refusing to officiate over her cold remains! because she was permitted by her parents to attend a public, or as some will have it, a Protestant school. The case is simply this; the father of the child called on me to ascertain whether he would bring the body to the church, or have the funeral rites performed at the house, as he lived convenient to the cemetery, and at some distance from the church. I asked him what priest attended the child before death; his reply was that she died without the priest, and of course did not receive the sacraments of the church. She had arrived at an age when, according to the laws of the Catholic church, it was criminal to neglect her, and would at once indicate a careless and indifferent priest, had he, on notification of my responsible person, neglected to visit her and administer the sacraments of the church. I told him that had he been as anxious about his child's eternal welfare as he was about her funeral, she would not have died without the sacraments, and declining to go to the house, I said by way of reprimand, that he need not bring the body to the church, since he had proved himself so indifferent to the spiritual welfare of his child. I solemnly assure the public at large, and I wish to be distinctly understood by my non-Catholic friends in Providence, Boston and New York, that I had weighty reasons to justify my reprimand, and, if possible, to awaken a livelier interest in a quarter where negligence, I feared, was acquiring great proportions, and for whose suppression it was the duty of a Christian pastor to exhort, to persuade, and if necessary to reprimand. Had he brought the child to the church, I would not have refused him. I did not absolutely forbid him to do so, nor did I refuse Christian burial. The body was indeed placed in the tomb of the Protestant cemetery, but this is an old custom here; there is no tomb in the Catholic cemetery, and our neighbors kindly allow us this privilege, when the frost is deep in the ground, or the bodies have to remain a few days or weeks, awaiting transportation to some other place. Then there was no objection to burial in consecrated ground, no peremptory denial to officiate in the church; a reprimand there was, as became my duty, and for this I have no apology to make, no excuse to offer, no language to retract. This is the correct statement of an incident, which has been magnified with the epithet of priestly intolerance, and according to the telegraphic dispatches sent to some of our prominent newspapers, has excited a feeling of indignation at the unrelenting intolerance of the Catholic priest of Newport. It is asserted in those papers that I refused to officiate because the child attended a public school. This I claim to be an infamous falsehood. The correspondents of those papers which conveyed that information to the country, never called on me to ascertain whether I had done so or not. I was condemned without the benefit of judge or jury, and the intolerance of my conduct was criticized beyond Lake Erie before I had heard one word of the affair in Newport. I appeal to the intelligent public of every denomination, was it honorable, noble, or generous, to charge me of an act I had not committed? to stab me in the dark, before I was aware of the danger? and thus consign me to the contempt of a people whom I never injured in thought, word or deed. Far be it from me to deny, that I am in favor of Catholic schools for Catholic children. I have a flourishing one under my charge, where five hundred pupils are instructing, and in addition to intellectual acquirements, are taught the principles of Christianity, which perfect the moral being of the child, and enable him to become a conscientious man, to discharge in an honorable manner, his duty towards his neighbor and his God. But it must not be supposed, that devoted as I am to the cause of Catholic education for Catholic children. I am inclined to refuse officiating over the cold remains of those children of my flock whose parents refuse to send them to a Catholic school. I blame not the children for the acts of the parents, they are under the parents' control, and I would consider it strictly unjust to deprive them on that account, of any spiritual consolation in my power, "Nec tam obtusa adeo gestamus pectora poeni." It is stated in the New York Herald that I am not hostile to the public schools. I love the sciences too well to be hostile to them or to the teachers, who impart the knowledge of the sciences to the youth of the country, or to the public buildings where they are taught. They are the gifts of the Author of all knowledge; they have an existence, and can be traced back to the first cause, to God himself, from whom no evil can proceed. But while I admire the intellectual advantages of the public school system, and admit their goodness as far as they exist, I do maintain, with every respect for the opinions of others, that there is yet something wanting, to give harmony and completion to the being, and that something is religious instruction, without whose influence, the heart becomes a dreary waste, and society perilous and uncertain. I praise them for what they have, I deeply deplore the absence of what they have not. The end of man is not here below; his soul has a longing for the infinite and eternal, it will never rest, never be satisfied, never acknowledge the completion of its happiness, until it returns to the Author of its being, and shares the immensity of his bounty; and as it is my duty to lead the flock committed to my charge to the attainment of that end, is it not just and proper that I should favor the school where that science, in addition to the others, is taught, where the child will not only learn the art of reading and writing, with the other branches of secular knowledge, but also the grand principles of eternal truth, that will govern his actions in this world, and lead him to happiness in the next? If I desire a young man to study the medical profession I will not send him to the carpenter's shop to receive his instructions there, I would rather place him under the eye of some eminent physician, or send him to an approved medical school, where his mind would be trained for his future career in life, nor would it follow from thence, that I despised the carpenter's profession, or considered his vocation useless or dangerous to society. A priori, when I propose to teach a child Christian truths, and impress on his tender mind, moral principles that conduce to virtue, I think it the part of prudence to place him where that science is strictly taught, to surround him with religious influences, and nourish his youthful mind with the principles of morality; and this action of mine would never justify the conclusion that I abhorred those seats of learning where the profane sciences were only taught, and religion left to the selection of the student. And now, Mr. Editor, in conclusion, I declare to the public, who have read all the wonders of this intolerance at Newport, that I have never peremptorily refused to officiate in the church over the remains of Geneva DeFray. I have never refused sacraments to children for attending public schools. I have never vilified the public institutions of the country. I have never telegraphed a libel, to the detriment of any man living. I have never uttered a reproach against my dissenting brethren. The foul charge of intolerance, as understood in practical language, I fling back on its author. A Kilkenny Grace was tolerant at the council board of King James, and though strictly Catholic in sentiment, refused to adopt harsh measures toward his separated brethren. These sentiments are mine, and however I may be libelled by the malicious and the base, my non-Catholic friends in Providence, Cranston and other portions of this state, where I have labored for the past twelve years, will, I am confident, suspend their judgment until they hear from me. I am a Catholic by conviction and a priest from choice; but a Catholic can resist a tyrant, and a priest secure a magna charta. I respect, and ever shall respect, the seats of profane learning. I favor and will cherish the schools where Christian principles are inculcated; where the child is trained to religious truth, to be moral in his actions, honest towards his neighbors, and faithful to his God.

PHILIP GRACE, Pastor of St. Mary's.

The Outrage by the Oka Roman Catholics.

MONTREAL, Dec. 21.

The outrage of the Oka Indians whereby their church at Oka village was burned down by a party of Roman Catholics, is attracting considerable attention. The alleged ill treatment of the Indians by the priests of the seminary of St. Ulpice is being investigated by the proper authorities.

EXCOMMUNICATED.

The Molly Maguires Excommunicated.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Dec. 21.

At services in the Roman Catholic church, at Mahoney Plain, the Rev. Daniel O'Connor, pastor, read a letter from the archbishop of Philadelphia, which was a formal excommunication of the society known as the Molly Maguires, otherwise the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

REMEMBER THIS.

Now is the time of the year for Pneumonia, Lung Fever, Coughs, Colds, and fatal results of predisposition to Consumption and other Throat and Lung Disease. Boschee's German Syrup has been used in this neighborhood for the past two or three years without a single failure to cure. If you have not used this medicine yourself, go to James H. Taylor's and ask him of its wonderful success among his customers. Two doses will relieve the worst case. If you have no faith in any medicine, just buy a Sample Bottle of Boschee's German Syrup for 10 cents and try it. Regular size Bottle 75 cents. Don't neglect a cough to save 75 cents.

A Health-Promoting Stimulant.

Physicians, who certainly ought to be the best judges of such matters, declare that wholesome stimulation is not only desirable, but essential in many instances. When the temporary good effect of a sound stimulant is confirmed and rendered permanent, as in the case of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, by the action of tonic and alterative principles combined with it, it becomes infinitely more efficacious as a renovant of physical energy and a corrective of those conditions of the body which invite disease. The Bitters have received the emphatic sanction of medical men who have observed the effect of that popular stimulative cordial as a remedy for weakness, nervousness, dyspepsia, constipation, inactivity of the liver, malarious fevers, and many other disorders. Its basis is sound old rye, the purest liquor known to commerce, and itself possessing tonic properties of no mean order. dec22-n&j

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS

Will be found to possess those qualities necessary to the total eradication of all bilious attacks, prompt to start the secretions of the liver, and give a healthy tone to the entire system. Indeed, it is no ordinary discovery in medical science to have invented a remedy for these stubborn complaints, which develop all the results produced by a heretofore free use of calomel, a mineral justly dreaded by mankind, and acknowledged to be destructive in the extreme to the human system. That the properties of certain vegetables comprise all the virtues of calomel without its injurious tendencies, is now an admitted fact, rendered indisputable by scientific researches; and those who use the Mandrake Pills will be fully satisfied that the best medicines are those provided by nature in the common herbs and roots of the fields.

These pills open the bowels and correct all bilious derangements without salivation or any of the injurious effect of calomel or other poisons. The secretion of bile is promoted by these pills, as will be seen by the altered color of the stools, and disappearing of the sallow complexion and cleansing of the tongue.

Ample directions for use accompany each box of pills.

Prepared only by J. H. Schenck & Son, at their principal office, corner Sixth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, and for sale by all druggists and dealers. Price 25 cents per box. dec5-1m

Christmas Greeting

—AT—

WARD'S,

No. 130 THAMES STREET.

Books are always acceptable, to big folks and little folks, to those who can read the biggest "dictionary words" and those who can read only the pictures in them.

And it is in hard times especially, that "books are the best presents."

There is nothing else in which five dollars can be made wisely to go so far. It has cost, perhaps, a thousand dollars, at the start, to make the book you get for half the five, and how very comfortable it is to give a thousand dollars' worth, that costs you only three.

THE MOST SUMPTUOUS GIFT BOOK OF THE SEASON,

INDIA, AND ITS NATIVE PRINCES.

Translated from the French of Louis Rousselet, with 317 illustrations from designs by the most celebrated artists, (many of them full page,) and six maps, $25.00.

Dore's Grand Portraiture of a Glorious Country,

SPAIN.

Illustrated by 240 engravings by Gustave Dore, consisting of 120 full page illustrations and 120 half page and small illustrations. One noble 4to volume of about 800 pages, printed on toned paper and richly bound in cloth, full gilt side, stamped with design taken from the Alhambra, gilt edges, $18.00.

The Eighteenth Century, its Institutions, Customs and Costumes. France 1700—1789, by Paul Lacroix. Illustrated with 21 Chromolithographs and 351 Wood Engravings, $15.00.

Pictures by Sir Edwin Landseer, R. A., with descriptions and a biographical sketch of the Painter, by James Dafforne, price, $15.00.

Pictures by Great Masters of the French, Dutch and Flemish Schools, with historical and critical descriptions, by James Dafforne.

Travels in South America, by Paul Marcoy, 2 vols $15.00.

Engravings from Landseer, reproduced in heliotype, with a sketch of the Life and Works of the Artist, $10.00.

Newport Daily News.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1875.

GENERAL NEWS

FROM WASHINGTON.

Growing Dissatisfaction with the Committees.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21, 1875.

The New York and Eastern Democratic Representatives who remain here speak more angrily about the appointment of committees than they did yesterday, and threaten an open revolt of Morrison does not retire, leaving Wood chairman of the committee on ways and means. The appointment of the jocose Proctor Knott to be chairman of the committee on the judiciary is anything but acceptable to the old Democratic lawyers here, and Mr. Herford of the interior state of West Virginia is a curious selection for the chairmanship of the committee on commerce. Fifteen of the chairmen are new members, unacquainted with legislation, but they all voted for Mr. Kerr for Speaker.

Death of a Veteran Messenger.

Basil Brown, a colored man, who has for 47 years been the messenger at the office of the commandant of the navy yard, is dead. He had many reminiscences of the navy here, and of the war with England, and of our present admirals when they were midshipmen.

FROM NEW YORK.

Order of the American Union.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.

The Herald has what purports to be an expose of the Order of the American Union, with a qualified statement that it is believed that Gen Grant, James G. Blaine and others are members, and that the object of the organization is to nominate and elect Grant for a third term.

Cuban Intervention.

Senator Cragin is reported as saying that the President intends intervention in Cuban affairs, and that our navy is in a fair condition.

The Railroad Freight Depot.

At a meeting of the managers of the Erie, New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroads, held last evening for the purpose of taking some action in regard to existing differences in the rates of freight between Boston and New York and the West, after some discussion it was fully determined that the managers of the Grand Trunk Railroad of Canada should be asked by telegraph to increase their rates, so as to make the charge on freight from Boston equal to the rates charged in New York. In the event of a refusal on the part of the managers of the Grand Trunk or a failure on their part to reply by tomorrow, it was decided by the New York managers that they would on that day make a material reduction in their own rates.

KANSAS.

The State Treasurer Forced to Resign.

A Kansas City dispatch says that Samuel Lappin, treasurer of Kansas, was forced to resign on Monday by order of Governor Osborne. Ten days ago it was discovered that heavy forgeries had been committed by some one by which the state was victimized to the extent of $10,000, and it is claimed that Lappin was the instigator if not the perpetrator of the forgeries. Lappin's bond is over $1,000,000, so that the state is secure against loss. He was elected at the last election by the Republicans. There is great excitement among politicians in Kansas, among whom Lappin has been a leader many years.

TEXAS.

The Mexican Raids.

A Brownsville, Texas, dispatch says that the Mexican raids continue, and that a mass meeting was held here, at which the mayor and other officials were present, and resolutions passed urging both the state and federal authorities to authorize Col. McNelly to raise 200 men to guard the frontier and capture the raiders. The Mexican authorities have not yet given up Harris, whose extradition is demanded, he being charged with attempted murder.

MISCELLANEOUS.

COLORADO.

The Constitutional Convention.

DENVER, Col., Dec. 20.

The convention to frame a constitution for the state assembled here and temporarily organized yesterday. A permanent organization will be effected today. The Republicans have a large majority, but will give a share of the offices to the minority.

THE DOMINION.

The Cold Snap in Nova Scotia.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 21.

Cold weather reports come from all parts of the country. At Winsor it was 10° below, Pictou 15° below, Oxford and Cumberland 18° below, and St. John, N. B., 21° below zero. Yesterday was the coldest of the season, the thermometer in this city being 20° below zero at 6 o'clock. At Rothday it was 23° below, Hampton 25° below zero, and at other points in the province still lower.

LOUISIANA.

Verdict in a Libel Suit.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 21.

In the case of Boyley & Pond versus Paul Fourchy and the Merchants' Insurance Company wherein $100,000 damages are claimed for libel in charging Bayley & Pond with arson in answer to a suit on a policy in the United States Court last June, the jury yesterday awarded the plaintiffs one cent damages and costs.

MISSOURI.

The Express Robbery.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 21.

It is pretty definitely ascertained that the amount of money obtained by the express robbers on Saturday morning was $8000. Had the robbery been committed before the train reached Mexico, Mo., the amount would have been much larger, as it would have included all the western remittances to Chicago. No arrests have yet been made, and the detectives decline to say whether they have any clue which will lead to the capture of the robbers.

WISCONSIN.

Sentence for Whiskey Frauds.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 21.

In the U. S. Circuit Court yesterday, Burbank was convicted of conspiracy to defraud the revenue, and was sentenced to eight months imprisonment, to pay a fine of $2000 and one half the costs of trial. Sentence was suspended in the case of Reynolds, his partner.

SPAIN.

Gen. Valmaseda's Successor in Cuba.

MADRID, Dec. 21.

Gen. Valmaseda's resignation as captain general of Cuba has been accepted, but it greatly embarrasses the government. General Jovellar, minister of war, has been appointed captain general of Cuba, in place of Valmaseda. Jovellar and Caballos will shortly leave for Cuba. Quesada will be appointed commander-in-chief of the armies of the North.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Execution of the Whitechapel Murderer.

LONDON, Dec. 21.

Henry Wainwright, recently convicted of the murder of Harriet Lane in Whitechapel road, was hanged at Newgate Prison, Old Bailey, today. Just before he was pinioned he handed the governor of the prison a written statement which he said he desired to make public. In this paper he acknowledges the justice of his sentence. He says he deserves his fate, though he does not explicitly admit that he murdered the young woman.

FACTORY BURNED AT SPENCER, MASS.

Loss $75,000.

WORCESTER, Mass., Dec. 21.

A fire at Spencer last night destroyed the boot factory of Bush & Grout and five other buildings on Main street. Four of them were owned by Charles Heywood. The entire loss is estimated at $75,000. Bush & Grout have $31,500 insurance in small policies of various companies, and C. B. Tucker has $8100. Heywood is also well insured. Kent's boot shop was badly scorched.

The Brooklyn Ring.

Brooklyn papers announce that papers were served today in the suit of the people of the state of New York against William C. Kingsley, Abner C. Keeney, William A. Fowler, E. J. Lomber, and Archibald M. Bliss, to recover $465,125, alleged to have been wrongfully paid on the Hempstead reservoir contract. The suit is brought in the supreme court in the city of New York.

High Mass for the Late Dr. Anderson.

A solemn requiem high mass for the repose of the soul of Dr. Henry Anderson, who died in Lahore, India, two months ago, was celebrated yesterday in St. Gabriel's, East Thirty-seventh street. The remains of Dr. Anderson are to reach New York within six or eight days. Dr. Anderson leaves over $1,500,000, much of which has been willed to charitable and religious institutions.

The Bowen Libel Suit.

Mr. Bowen's suit for damages for defamation of character against the Brooklyn Eagle was opened today in the same court-room in which the Beecher scandal was tried.

FIRE ALARM REGULATIONS.

To send out an alarm.

Any person who discovers a fire is requested to immediately give the alarm by crying fire, and, going to the box nearest the fire, to send out a general alarm by procuring the key, unlocking the box, and firmly putting the hook down, once only, then closing the door, being careful to see that it is locked, and returning the key.

The person sending out an alarm from a box is requested to remain near said box until the first engine arrives, to direct the firemen to the exact locality of the fire.

Cautions.

Never pull a box if the small gong inside is striking or the machinery of the box is heard running.

Do not pull a box for a fire seen at a distance, or unless you are aware of the locality of a fire.

Key holders are requested not to allow their keys to be taken except by responsible parties.

Bell Ringers.

Bell ringers are engaged to ring the following church bells in connection with the telegraph alarm:—

The First and North Baptist, United Congregational and Emmanuel with instructions to ring their respective bells for five minutes immediately after the telegraphic alarm has completed its four rounds and then to repeat eight times the number of the box from which the alarm is sent.

Recall.

Nine blows upon the telegraphic alarm bells will indicate that the fire is out and that the services of the department are not required.

Testing the Apparatus.

One stroke on the bells by the telegraphic alarm will simply indicate that the apparatus is in good order.

LOCATION OF BOXES AND KEYS.

Box No. 6.—On Lysander Stevens's house, Thames street, opposite Bridge street.

Keys at Lysander Stevens's and Daniel C. Denham's.

Box No. 3.—Mrs. Sylvanus Wilbour's house, corner of Touro and Spring streets.

Keys at Harwood B. Read's and G. T. Dubba's.

Box No. 4.—Downing's Block on Downing street near Bellevue avenue.

Keys at George T. Downing's, Bellevue avenue, Enos Hayward's Downing street and William A. Williams's, Downing Block.

Box No. 5.—On J. T. Burdick & Co's store, corner of Thames street and Brown & Howard's wharf.

Keys at J. T. Burdick & Co's store, C. H. Burdick's, Thames street and Thomas Chambers's, corner Brown & Howard's wharf.

Keys also in the hands of the firewards, city marshal and all the members of the police force. nov2

No fractions of cents to be introduced in an order. United States Treasury Notes or National Bank Notes only received or paid.

Fee for registering letters of any value 10 cents.

WHAT A REMARKABLE PEOPLE WE ARE.——The fertile brain of the Parisian journalist makes him a formidable rival of that exaggerating old traveler Sir John Mandeville in his descriptions of men and affairs in other countries. For example, here is what a correspondent of the Paris Figaro tells in regard to American customs, the impression the paragraph leaves upon an informed mind being that the writer never saw America, except "in his mind's eye."

"In Winter evenings, when there comes up one of those dense fogs which are so common over in America, it is no unusual thing to meet in the streets a man carrying a lantern, which resembles one of our magic lanterns. He selects a frequented spot, and when the crowd becomes dense around him he turns his lantern towards the lowering clouds. At that instant, as if by miracle, the bystanders behold in the midst of the heavens, which do duty for a curtain, a gigantic advertisement recommending some dry goods establishment or clothing store. The second example is more simple, but not less ingenious. One often passes on the street a citizen walking rapidly, and treading with all his weight on the sidewalk. You draw near, and on the asphalt, in the trace left by the footprints of the personage in question, you read an advertisement printed in clear and elegant characters. The man is a walking advertisement, and he wore shoes with nailed letters on their soles."

A PHILOSOPHICAL EXAMINATION.—The Rev. Dr. Ritchie, of Edinburgh, though a very clever man, has met with his match. When examining a student as to the classes he had attended, he said, "And you attended the class for mathematics?"

"Yes."

"How many sides has a circle?"

"Two," said the student.

"What are they?"

What a laugh in the class the student's answer produced when he said, "An inside and an outside!"

But this was nothing compared with what followed. The doctor having said to this student, "And you attended the moral philosophy class also?"

"Yes."

"Well, you would hear lectures on various subjects. Did you ever hear one on cause and effect?"

"Yes."

"Does an effect ever go before a cause?"

"Yes."

"Give me an instance."

"A man wheeling a barrow."

The doctor then sat down, and proposed no more questions.

THE CHURCH AND THE STAGE.—Miss Kate Field says in a recent London letter to the Louisville Courier-Journal: "There are even grounds for believing that church and drama may one day embrace. An American clergyman told me lately that he was sure he'd be an actor in the other world, he loved the stage so passionately, notwithstanding that he had never dared to be seen in a theatre until he came to Europe. Sir Charles Young, recently appointed one of the international copyright commissioners, combines the occupations of novelist, dramatist and secretary to the English church union, relieving the latter by amateur acting. I expect to live to see the day when clergymen will be writing dramatic criticisms for the daily papers, and advising their congregations what plays to see and what plays to avoid. Then, I think, there will be an end to opera bouffe. Amen."

Miscellaneous.

Notice Extraordinary.

THE UNDERSIGNED returns thanks to his many customers for their patronage in the past and hopes for a continuance of their favors in the future, pledging himself in return to give them just as good (if not a little better) work in all branches of his business entrusted to his care.

To my friends who have forgotten their accounts of long standing—some as long ago as 1867—if they will now call and settle their bill before the new year, their short coming will be forgiven and their future orders will be as promptly executed as heretofore.

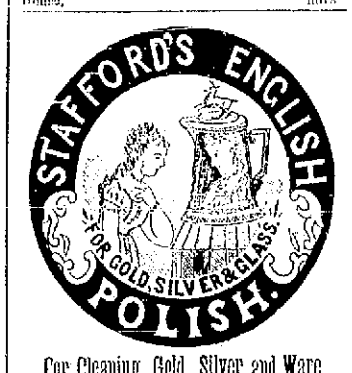

I do all branches of Painting and Glazing, and such work as Tinting Walls and Ceilings, Graining and Marbling, Wood Filling, Shellacing, Lettering, Scroll-ing, Gilding, Smalting, Kalsomining, Paper Hanging; also Carriage Painting in all its various styles. I have also in my store room the following vehicles, all in good order and ready for use, which I will sell cheap for cash or good paper, viz:

1 Barouche.
1 Victoria.
1 Phaeton with rumble and canopy.
1 Phaeton with canopy.
1 New Phaeton Top Buggy.
1 Phaeton Top Buggy.
1 Nice High Top Buggy with pole and shaft.
1 Brewster Top Buggy.
1 Covered Business Wagon.
4 Carryalls, various patterns, good storm carriages.
1 very nice new Sleigh, never used, lined and trimmed in the best style, with pole and shafts.
2 Open Buggies.
1 six seated 2 Horse Sleigh.
1 two seated half Top Wagon, or Park Phæton.
5 large Express Wagons, suitable for Express business.
8 low priced Wagons, various styles, just the wagons for any one wanting a good and cheap wagon.
1 Lumber Dray, small size.
1 large 80 seat Passenger Wagon, cheap, with lead pole for six horses.
1 very nice Dog Cart, with pole and shafts and reversible seat, to carry 2 or 4 persons.
1 set of double Harness, cheap.
4 Single Harnesses, cheap.

My office on Bellevue Avenue will be closed during the winter and I can be found at either of my other shops during business hours.

For Cleaning Gold, Silver and Ware

This Polish has no equal.

Everybody lacking the Silver ware to clean, asks Stafford's Polish to clean their lamp chimneys. For this purpose alone it is desirable that everybody should keep it constantly in their possession.

The ladies all say they have not half the trouble to clean off the smoke and grease as by the common method of washing them; and when lit up in the evening the lamp never refuses to shed its superb rays all around as there is nothing whatever to prevent it, the glass is so clean and free from smoke, &c.

Every husband admires his wife's cleanliness when he returns home in the evening after a hard day's toil and finds everything looking so bright and cheerful; but the wife keeps her secret and will not tell him that she has used Stafford's Polish to clean the lamp chimney, which is the cause of so much surprise and admiration.

Sold in Boxes, 15 cts. each.

None genuine except bearing a label fac-simile to wood cut above.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY.

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS.

For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,

No. 76 State St., opp. Kilby St., Boston,

AFTER AN EXTENSIVE PRACTICE of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with despatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
